

*I may be gone but please don't cry
Death is not the last goodbye
Death releases me of my pain
There will come a day we will meet again
Don't be blue and don't be sad
Think back to the fun we had
I am always here I hear you speak
In time of troubles it's me you seek
You don't see me but I see you
I will do my best to see you through
Speak to me and I will hear
Never far I am always near
Be brave my love do not cry
See you again for this is not goodbye.*

In Loving Memory

SEPTEMBER 1, 1977 ~ DECEMBER 18, 2020

*I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*

NICOLE'S JOURNEY

Nicole Kenyotta Dixon was born on September 1, 1977 to Annie Dixon and David Scott. At birth she was the most mesmerizing baby girl. She made her presence known with her beautiful eyes and her amazing smile

Nikki "nik-nice" Dixon was educated in the Wake County Public School System. Graduating from Broughton High School. She later ventured off to Wake Technical Community College receiving a certificate in medical assistance, which also led to completing a certificate from the Medical Art Center in Raleigh, NC. She also accepted Christ into her life and joined Greater Pentecostal Church also located in Raleigh, NC.

Throughout her life Nikki would go on to complete and accomplish many great things. She was a God-fearing woman and always put God first in everything she did. One of her proudest accomplishments was being a great mother. Nikki would go above and beyond for her children and would sacrifice at any given moment to make sure her children had everything they needed. She also shared a special bond with her mother. Her days always with making sure her mother was ok.

Nikki always started her day with a nice cold Pepsi and a few of her other favorite things. To know her is to love her. She was an amazing friend and was loved by so many people. She always carried a smile on her face and always had an encouraging word for anybody at any moment. Nikki loved God, her children and her family and friend tremendously and would literally give you the shirt off her back. She strived to demonstrate a Godly love to anybody she encountered throughout her day. What made Nikki happy was to see other people happy and she was extremely proud of any accomplishment her family and friends made. She had a loving spirit and would brighten your day with her infectious smile. Along her journey she touched the lives of so many people and will always be remembered in the most favorable way. She will never be forgotten.
